For Immediate Release

Chicago, IL: The valuation and litigation support practice of the firm Chadwick & Garvy LLC has been merged with Corporate Valuation Services, Inc. The merger completes a strategic initiative to separate the accounting side and the valuation side of the firm. Tony Garvy, formerly a partner in Chadwick & Garvy LLC will now be President of Corporate Valuation Services, Inc. Of the merger, Mr. Garvy comments:

“This merger and transfer outside of the accounting firm allows our practice to focus completely on two areas – the appraisal of closely held businesses and private financial instruments and provide litigation support to select clients and referral partners.

In the past, there were some CPA firms that wanted to refer us assignments but were hesitant to do so. With this new platform, we are completely independent of the CPA firm and can provide the most credible, independent solutions to all clients and referral sources.”
